

Pediatric Therapies

Sound Therapy

The inability to process sounds and language during the development of a child can have a profound impact on their lives. It can affect everything from behavior and academics, to relationships.

Our team can help. Our dedicated therapists use a variety of sound therapy programs which can help your child overcome this obstacle. Call us today to learn more.

NorthLakes

COMMUNITY CLINIC

888.834.4551

nlccwi.org

Symptoms

---

Behavioral concerns

Asking for repetition

History of ear infections

Poor academic performance

Auditory processing problems

Speaking too loudly or too softly

Delayed language development

Dislikes or avoids busy environments

Startled by loud or unexpected sounds

Frequently misunderstands what is said

Difficulty understanding speech in noise

Being over or understimulated by sound

Treatment

---

Therapeutic Listening® Programs

Modulated Music

Quickshifts

Spatially Enhanced

Integrated Listening Systems® (ILS) Programs

Berard Auditory Integration Training® (AIT)

Rhythmic Entertainment Interventions® (REI)

NorthLakes
COMMUNITY CLINIC