

Pediatric Therapies

Emotional and Behavior Management

A child who responds to situations with challenging or unfitting behavior can have many impacts on your child's and family's life. It may affect their ability to make friends, act properly in social situations, control their emotions and learn in school.

Our team of passionate therapists will come along side you and help bring positive change to your child's responses. Call us today to learn more.

NorthLakes

COMMUNITY CLINIC

888.834.4551

nlccwi.org

Symptoms

- Aggressive behavior
- Attention challenges
- Difficulties with self regulation
- Risky and self-injurious behavior
- Problems following multi-step tasks
- Challenges with understanding others
- Difficulties with emotion management
- Challenges with expressing themselves
- Unable to follow and recognize social norms
- Behavioral responses that don't fit the situation

Treatment

- Parent training
- Coping techniques
- Social skills training
- Sensory integration
- Developing primary reflexes
- Relationship-building interventions

NorthLakes
COMMUNITY CLINIC