

Pediatric Therapies

Infant Therapy

Early development is the foundation to all future skills. If your infant is having any challenges with development, our team will work together to provide a whole body approach to treatment.

Our multidisciplinary team features care coordination with a primary physician or midwife, lactation consultant, NICU therapist and other NorthLakes providers allowing for individualized care. Please call us today to learn more.

NorthLakes

COMMUNITY CLINIC

888.834.4551

nlccwi.org

Symptoms

Reflux

Torticollis

Misshapen head

Sleep challenges

Tongue and lip tie

Difficulties latching

Excessive fussiness

Excessive spitting up

Delay in development

Poor weight gain or growth

Difficulties feeding or swallowing

Over or undersensitive to their environment

Treatment

Manual therapy

Care coordination

Family involvement

Sensory integration

Assistive equipment

Reflex development

Muscle strengthening

Coaching on positioning

Routines based interventions

Parent education and family partnership

Coordination of the phases of swallowing

NorthLakes
COMMUNITY CLINIC