Nutrition Therapy

Our Nutrition Therapy program offers evidence-based education by a Registered Dietitian. The goal is to look at how eating is impacting your overall wellness and improve outcomes.

During an appointment, patients can expect to receive guidance on their diet and lifestyle so that they are empowered to take control of their wellness through healthy adjustments at home.
Nutrition Therapy can help with

Diabetes
Heart Disease
Kidney Disease
Weight Management

Our Registered Dietitian is also a certified diabetes care and education specialist and can assist with diabetes education and management.
